

Please note: This pipework schematic is typical of an S-Plan Plus arrangement and is not specific to any particular system. It is the responsibility of the installer to determine the suitability of existing components and include additional safety devices necessary to comply with relevant Building Regulations.